PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Dear Fellow Phi Betes:

As the days shorten and people younger than we are returning to the classroom, members of our Association can look back on a very successful year. Once again Mel Shattuck graciously sponsored our May Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner at the Berkeley Faculty Club, a perfect venue for honoring our Teaching Excellence awardees and our Scholarship winners. This year we distributed $500 honoraria to four outstanding professors, while ten talented graduate students were the recipients of $5,000 scholarships. It is your ongoing support that allows us to continue to make these significant awards.

The May meeting also affords us the opportunity to honor retiring Board members and welcome their replacements. After serving admirably for a number of years, Gerry Richards has handed over the newsletter responsibilities to Ray Hendess, a former Board member and Past President. Stanley Kahn is also leaving the Board and his position as First Vice President - Programs. However, he has graciously agreed to "stay on board" planning our activities until Judy Hardardt is freed of other obligations and can assume the duties in the spring. As many of you know, Adeline Kahn, Stanley's wife, has also been a great help to Stanley in this position. She is certainly due a special thank-you from all of us for the hard work she has put in without being an official Board member.

And speaking of official Board members, they continue to do their usual outstanding work. One of the strengths of our Board is the continuity in key positions. Our long-term members continue to make invaluable contributions to our organization. Letitia Sanders, our Membership Vice President, not only keeps very accurate records of our members, but also makes valuable recommendations based on reliable data concerning our newsletter and other mailings. Mary Gilliland, our Treasurer, is equally meticulous, and our new investment strategy, worked out in conjunction with member Robert O'Donnell, has proved to be quite profitable.

Our newer Board members are also valuable contributors. Joanne Sandstrom continues to do outstanding work as our Scholarship Vice President. This year I had the pleasure of serving on her committee and was truly awed by the excellence of the applicants. We were sorry that we could not award them all scholarships. Joanne also did double duty in May by filling in for me at the Annual Dinner, where her

TEACHING EXCELLENCE NEEDS YOUR HELP

The Teaching Excellence Committee needs members. Members of this committee meet in early March (mostly by email) to evaluate nominees for the Teaching Excellence Award. Candidates with a specialization in the humanities or the social sciences are strongly urged to apply since current members all have a background in the sciences. Contact Narcinda Lerner for more information about this position: (650) 851-0137, email: nrlernern@netscape.net.

UNIV. OF THE PACIFIC RECEIVES CHAPTER

Scott Lurding, Associate Secretary of the Phi Beta Kappa National Office, presented the Chi Chapter of California its charter during an installation ceremony held March 31 at the Stockton campus of the University of the Pacific. Chi becomes the eighth Northern California Phi Beta Kappa chapter and the first to be installed in over twenty years. Dr. Wilson Heefner and Marci Coglianes represented the Northern California Association at the installation. Coglianes addressed the initiates at the banquet. More on the web at www.pbknca.org. (The Chapter Liaison report is on page 6.) Janiece Nolan, Chapter Liaison Chair

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES

Having completed seven guided tours since January, and learned a good deal about the area in which we live, we are fortunate in having several more lined up for the remainder of 2007 and early 2008. We are looking forward to a tour of the

Excellence in Teaching Award – 2008

Phi Beta Kappa Northern California Association

Dear Fellow Phi Betes:

We are seeking nominations for this prestigious award, which carries an honorarium as well as a certificate. Please nominate a professor you consider to be outstanding: someone who taught an especially memorable course or who impressed you as an unusually skilled educator, who had a special impact on your education, career, or life, or whom you found inspiring and admirable. Making such a nomination is an appropriate and satisfying way of expressing your gratitude to that person. Winners will be honored at Phi Beta Kappa Northern California Association's Annual May Banquet.

Faculty members of any rank (including lecturers and emeriti) at the following schools are eligible for nomination: Mills College, San Francisco State University, Santa Clara University, Stanford University, UC Berkeley, UC Davis, UC Santa Cruz, and University of the Pacific. Please give as complete information as possible. Your nominees need not be Phi Beta Kappa members.

You may make more than one nomination, but please use a separate sheet for each nomination you make. This form is also available on our website www.pbknca.org under "Teaching" organization and sense of humor served her well.

Janiece Nolan, our Chapter Liaison Chair, makes sure a Board member or other representative attends each initiation at every Bay Area chapter. This personal contact has resulted in increasing numbers of Teaching Excellence nominees, which makes Cindy Lerner, who is in charge of these awards, very happy. Speaking of Cindy, she is recruiting several replacement members for her committee (see page 1). Professors, active or emeriti, especially those in humanities, are especially needed. I hope some of you with this area of expertise will volunteer.

In addition, our Recording Secretary Mary Granger's accurate minutes remind us what commitments we have made, while our Corresponding Secretary, Georgia Maslowski handles all the contribution thank-you notes, as well as miscellaneous communications. Jae Emehiser is busy with planning our annual Asilomar conference (see article, p. 6). Mark your calendars now, so that you can join us during the Presidents' Day Weekend 2008. And finally, a word of thanks to our Immediate Past President, Muriel Bell, and her predecessor, Mary Hanel, whose advice, counsel, and support have made my job immeasurably easier.

Looking back, we can be proud of this past year's successes. Looking forward, I am confident that the coming year will also be successful because of our wonderful members and outstanding Board.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Ellen James

CALL FOR TEACHING NOMINEES

ΦBK NCA has for many years made annual Excellence in Teaching Awards. Each award consists of a handsome certificate and a $500 honorarium. All members of ΦBK NCA are encouraged to nominate a teacher who made a special contribution to their development. Eligible nominees are faculty members of the eight universities of Northern California that harbor ΦBK chapters: Mills College, San Francisco State University, Santa Clara University, Stanford University, UC Berkeley, UC Davis, UC Santa Cruz, and the University of the Pacific. Although the university at which the nominee teaches must have a ΦBK chapter, the nominee need not be a member of ΦBK. A copy of the nomination form appears on page 2 of the newsletter. It is also available on the ΦBK NCA website. I need completed applications before November 30, 2007. The Association presents the awards at its annual dinner in May 2008.

Narcinda Lerner, Chair, Teaching Excellence Committee

Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory in early September. In late September, a tour of the famed Filoli Gardens in autumn is scheduled. All of these have already been described in our April Newsletter, and will be repeated in this one. In addition, a tour of the Louise Nevelson exhibit at the de Young Museum in early November, the Anchor Brewery, and San Francisco Civic Center are newly described in this issue. And, of course, the Asilomar conference in February.

As in the past, we request that all registrants print clearly information required on each tour coupon, make checks payable to PBK NCA, mail to Stanley Kahn at the listed address, and kindly print name of tour on each check.

Please keep checking our website, www.pbknca.org, for fast-breaking news, wonderful illustrations of our tours, and other valuable information regarding ΦBK NCA.

If you haven't attended a tour lately, give it a whirl! You might be pleasantly surprised not only at what you may learn, but also at the warm camaraderie of our members.

Respectfully submitted,

Stanley S. Kahn First Vice President - Programs

Tour of the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory
September 7, 2007

Come visit a world famous scientific and historic landmark, the Lawrence Berkeley National Laboratory. The Berkeley Lab is the home of the first cyclotron, invented by the Laboratory's founding father and UC Berkeley's first Nobel Laureate, Ernest O. Lawrence. Discover how the Laboratory, founded in the depths of the Great Depression, initially in a small wooden building, went on "from typewriter to cyclotron" to win a total of eleven Nobel prizes for its distinguished and brilliant staff. High on the hill overlooking the UC Berkeley campus (the view of the Bay is great), the Laboratory is the oldest of the US Department of Energy's laboratories. Its annual budget exceeds 500 million dollars, and it employs 3,800 persons, including over 500 students. It is organized into a multitude of scientific disciplines. Next best to visiting the Lab in person, one may appreciate the full extent of its scope by pulling up its website at www.lbl.gov. One of California's most innovative and prestigious scientific institutions, it is well worth a visit. A two-hour guided tour of the Berkeley Laboratory has been arranged for us on Friday, September 7. We are to meet in downtown Berkeley and will be transported by bus as a group to the Laboratory.

A map of the site, as well as directions, may be found at <http://www.lbl.gov/Workplace/Transportation.html>

Date: Friday, September 7, 2007

Time: 10 AM Please be prompt!

Fee: $ 10.00

Deadline: September 4, 2007

Minimum: 15, Maximum: 20

Meeting site: Downtown Berkeley BART Station, corner of Center and Shattuck Streets, downtown Berkeley, adjacent to the Wells Fargo Bank building at 2144 Shattuck.

Directions and Parking: If feasible, take BART to the Downtown Berkeley station. The Wells Fargo Bank building is a very short walking distance from the station.

If coming by car, bring lots of quarters to feed the parking meters. An alternative option is the public parking lot on Center Street, a short distance from Shattuck.

From the north, take US 101 South to the Richmond Bridge via I-580 East. Exit at University Avenue. Turn right on Shattuck. The Wells Fargo main Building is at 2144 Shattuck, corner of Center Street and Shattuck.

From the Peninsula, take US 101 and cross the Bay Bridge. Take the Berkeley exit, enter I-80 North and take the University Avenue exit. As noted above, turn right on Shattuck.

From the south, Take I-880 N and merge into I-580 W/I-80 E. Take University Avenue exit.

Filoli Tour in the autumn - Friday, September 28, 2007

September 2007

Because of its beauty and the diversity of its plantings, Filoli has always been a popular destination for lovers of flowers, the out-of-doors, and the green world in general. While many of us have had the pleasure of visiting Filoli in the past, to fully appreciate its beauty, one should visit it in the different seasons of the year. A guided tour is being arranged for us in late September. Here's our opportunity to visit Filoli in the autumn. Granted, it is not identical to fall New England foliage, but it certainly is still a glorious experience. For visitors in wheelchairs, certain paths of the garden are accessible. For more detailed information, consult Filoli's website: www.filoli.org.

Sign up now to visit Fall Filoli! Since this is a walking tour, we do need to arrive on time.

Date: Friday, September 28, 2007

Time: 1:00 PM

Deadline: September 14, 2007

Minimum: 15, Maximum: 30

Fee: $ 15.00 per person

Location and Directions:

From North of Filoli: Drive south on Highway 280. Take Edgewood Road exit. Go right on Edgewood Road until it dead ends at Cañada Road. Turn right again and go 1.25 miles until you see the second chain link gate on the left. There's a small building with a guard who can then direct you to the property.

From South of Filoli: Drive north on Highway 280. Take the Edgewood Road exit. Go left on Edgewood Road until it dead ends at Cañada road. Turn right and go 1.25 miles until you see the second chain link gate on the left. See bottom line of instructions regarding the small building and the guard therein.

From the East Bay: Drive west on Highway 92, Take Highway 280 south. See the remainder of the instructions above "From North of Filoli".

Tour of the Louise Nevelson sculpture exhibit - Saturday, November 3, 2007

Come join us for a guided tour of an exhibit of one of the most innovative and ingenious American artists of the twentieth century. No ordinary artist, Louise Nevelson was a pioneer in the art of transforming found objects into fascinating works of art. The de Young Museum of San Francisco has mounted an exhibition of more than seventy examples of her craftsmanship. Her art is unique in the true sense of the word. As mentioned by the Museum, her work is a not only a story in sculpture, but also the autobiographical statement of a gifted woman artist. The exhibit is drawn from many public and private collections and comprises both sculpture and works in paper. The Whitney Museum in New York, the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, the Walker Art Center and the Jewish Museum of New York have all participated in loaning examples of her work.

The exhibit will open on October 27, and run until January 13, 2008.

We have arranged for a guided tour on Saturday, November 3, 2007 at 9:00 AM.

Date: Saturday, November 3, at 9:00 AM
Meeting place: Lobby of de Young Museum
Fee: $ 20.00
Deadline for registration: October 3, 2007
Minimum: 15, Maximum: 45

Directions and Parking: The de Young is one of the most convenient museums for automobiles and bicycles. It has excellent underground parking below the Museum. The parking garage is most conveniently entered from Fulton Street on 10th Avenue. Detailed directions are available at www.deyoungmuseum.org/. For those who do not have access to a computer, I will be happy to mail a hard copy of the directions.

Public transportation is also available from the de Young Website and also by calling (415) 673-6864. Again, I would be happy to mail a hard copy to anyone who so desires one.

Anchor Brewery Tour January 11, 2008

Over the past two years, one tour has out-subscribed all others in popularity, the tour to San Francisco's beloved brewery, founded in the late nineteenth century. We've been most fortunate in obtaining permission to schedule another tour of the Brewery this coming January 11, 2008, Friday, at 2:00 PM. The tour might be entitled Brewing 101.

Our guide, an employee of the Brewery, is most knowledgeable about the wide variety of ales and other brews created at this immaculate, state-of-the-art institution. The tour lasts about two hours, and involves some walking up and down stairs. Tasting of a number of samples is offered. One caveat. Be cautious about just tasting a very small amount if you are the one who drives home!

Directions: The Brewery is located in San Francisco at 1705 Mariposa Street at the corner of De Haro. If you prefer public transportation, take the # 19 and # 22 buses, which drop off less than two blocks from the Brewery's front door.

Driving directions are available at www.anchorbrewing.com. If you do not have internet facilities available, I will mail you a hard copy of the driving directions.

Minimum 10;Maximum 25
Deadline for registration: December 31, 2007
Date of tour Friday, January 11, 2008

San Francisco Civic Center Tour, March 13, 2008

Most of us have been in the vicinity of the San Francisco Civic Center on one occasion or another. One of our most popular mentors, fellow Phi Beta Paul Cooney, will be our guide. Although the tour is listed as the Civic Center Tour, Paul assures me that his emphasis will be on City Hall, one of the most impressive municipal halls in the United States. Paul has selected Thursday because on Thursdays, some of the sessions in progress are open to the public. The tour will also include the San Francisco Public Library. Tour lasts about two hours, and should conclude by noon.

For those who may wish to have lunch in the area afterwards, there are many good restaurants, including Citizen Cake at 399 Grove where lunch is available until 2:30 PM. Some members have expressed interest in having lunch after the tour at the Carème Room, sponsored by the California Culinary Academy, located at 625 Polk Street near Turk. For more information and reservations call (415) 771-3500, or reservations may be made online at www.opentable.com, specifying Carème Room. Lunch there is available between 11:30 and 12:45 by advance reservation. Our guide, Paul Cooney, may have additional suggestions for lunch in the Civic Center area.

Date: Thursday, March 13, 2008
Time: 10:00 AM
Meeting place: Pioneer statue between Asian Museum and SF Public Library
Fee: $20.00
Minimum 10; Maximum 25
Deadline for registration: February 13, 2008

Registration coupons are on page 7

SIGN UP NOW FOR ASILOMAR

Don't Forget Asilomar, February 15-18, 2008

The Dining Hall

Don't forget our Presidents' Day Weekend Conference at Asilomar on the beautiful Monterey Peninsula. Renew acquaintances and meet new Phi Betes, attend stimulating lectures and participate in lively discussions, indulge in good food, relax in peaceful surroundings, and help support our graduate student fellowships. Newcomers are welcome and members are invited to bring guests.

This is a highlight of the year for many who enjoy the coast, the fellowship, the intellectual conversation, and the opportunity to contribute to Φ BK NCA graduate student fellowships. Last year the conference funded two awards of $5,000 each. That is why most of the registration fee is tax deductible.

Do not be deterred by winter. February on the peninsula with occasional showers is often more pleasant than the fog that settles in during summer months. After all, this is the time of the Monarch butterfly mating season that fills many trees just a short walk from the conference site. There is ample opportunity to walk on the beach, tour the historic buildings designed by Julia Morgan, bicycle to Monterey, visit the shops in Carmel, or settle down with a good book around the roaring fire in Hearst Hall.

The conference theme this year is "Interpreting Science, Humanities, and the Law." Our first two speakers are both Phi Betes: Monterey Aquarium Research Institute president Dr. Marcia McNutt and law school professor Kermit Roosevelt. Other speakers are optical engineer Ed Granger and California authors Jeane Wakatsuki and James Houston. In addition Robert and Judy Hodgson, who operate Fieldbrook Valley Winery, will give us a short course on wine appreciation, we shall take an excursion to the Pacific Grove butterfly sanctuary, and stretch our bodies, as well as our minds, with T'ai Chi before breakfast.

A new feature this year will be small group discussions. We are suggesting that you read a book in advance. There will be no grades and no examination, but we look forward to lively discussions. The book by our Saturday morning speaker, Professor Roosevelt, is The Myth of Judicial Activism: Making Sense of Supreme Court Decisions (Yale University Press, 2006). If you like, you may use the list of potential discussion questions available on the Φ BK NCA website at www.pbknca.org/questions.html as a guide to your reading.

Check-in starts at 3 p.m., Friday, February 15th in Hearst Social Hall. President Jean James will host a Reception for Newcomers at 5 p.m. in the Forest Lodge Suite. Dinner is served from 6 to 7 p.m. in Crocker Dining Hall, and our first program begins at 7:30 p.m. The conference ends with lunch on Monday the 18th. Those who need to get an early start after our morning session on Monday may order a box lunch.

If you have not registered, it is not too late. Just complete the coupon on page 8 and mail it to me with your check payable to PBK NCA for $100 per person. I'll mail you the housing form for you to send to Asilomar with the payment for your room and board. The 2007 fees for three nights and eight meals are $363.55 per person in a double room and $586.30 for one person alone. If you need to contact Asilomar, you may speak with our coordinator, Pat Kauffman, and refer to conference #2209PY. Her phone number is (831) 642-4218, and her email is pkaufma@dncinc.com.

Since Asilomar releases rooms from the block reserved for us that are not paid for 60 days prior to our conference, you need to send your room and board fees to Asilomar by December 1. You may take a chance and pay your fees later, but that may be risky. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at (707) 840-9094 or send me an email at jaepat@suddentlink.net. I am looking forward to seeing you soon for a stimulating, rewarding conference,

Jae Emenhiser
Asilomar Chair

Reservation coupon is on page 8

CHAPTER LIAISON REPORT

Chapter Liaison makes arrangements for Φ BK NCA members to attend initiation ceremonies at our eight affiliated college chapters: UC Berkeley, UC Davis, UC Santa Cruz, University of the Pacific, Mills College, San Francisco State University, Santa Clara University, and Stanford University. At the ceremonies we tell the initiates about Φ BK NCA and encourage them to become members by providing free first-year memberships. We also encourage initiates to nominate favorite professors for our Teaching Excellence awards.

Between March and June, 2007, at least one Φ BK NCA volunteer attended each of the eight college initiations, including the installation of a new chapter at the University of the Pacific, Stockton (see article page on 1). Our attendance at these ceremonies increases awareness of alumnae associations nation-wide and increases nominations for Teaching Excellence awards. It is also an opportunity for our volunteers to become more involved on the college campuses.

Thanks go to our 2007 college campus volunteers: Sandra Belanger, Marci Coglianese, Wilson Heefner, Jean James, Hershey Julian, Narcinda Lerner, Georgia Maslowski, Janiece Nolan, Letitia Sanders, and Joanne Sandstrom.

Next spring we will need volunteers again. Please consider this opportunity when we publish the 2008 dates sometime after January.

Janiece Nolan, Chapter Liaison Chair

PROGRAM RESERVATIONS

If you plan to attend any of the ΦBK NCA events, please clip or copy the appropriate coupon below, fill it out and mail it, with your check, to Stanley S. Kahn at the address indicated. No confirmations or additional details will be sent; be sure to save this newsletter! (Details are also at www.pbknca.org)

For the first time, we are requesting all registrants, in the event that a change of plans will prevent their attendance after all, to notify Stanley either at his home phone, (510) 665-5987 or in the event that the decision not to appear is made on the date of the tour, on his cell phone, (510) 367-7708. It isn't fair to others to delay the start of a tour for those who do not plan to attend after all, and there may be people on the waiting list who would like to go. Of course, we hope all who sign up will show up; nevertheless, "the best laid plans..." etc.
