From The President

Dear Fellow Phi Betes,

Not only does spring herald the return of milder weather and plentiful blossoms, it also brings with it our Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner, which was held this year on Sunday, May 3, at the Faculty Club at UC Berkeley, once again under the auspices of Mel Shattuck. That afternoon we awarded $5,000 scholarships to six deserving students and $500 Teaching Excellence honoraria to three outstanding professors. Their names are listed below and on our website at www.pbknca.org. More information about these impressive individuals will appear in the November newsletter.

The Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner was the direct result of the generosity of our members. It is your membership dues, donations, and Asilomar Conference registration fees that make these awards possible. A special thank-you goes to Burt and Maria Norall who once again fully funded a scholarship in memory of Cordie and Max McLain whose financial help allowed Burt to attend UC Berkeley. Of course, the hard work and dedication of our Board and committee members also ensured the success of the evening. Judy Hardardt, First Vice President, Programs, was in charge of all the arrangements and continued the outstanding performance she has displayed in organizing our many activities this year. (See page three to discover what she has in store for the coming months.)

The dinner was also a time to honor our retiring Board members and welcome the new ones. Alex Harding is now Letitia Sanders' official replacement as Third Vice President, Membership, although he had already assumed the duties of this office in January. Joanne Williams is the new Corresponding Secretary, replacing Georgia Maslowski. Our Asilomar Conference also has a new leader: Calvin Wood is taking over from Jae Emenheiser. Special thanks to Marvin Richards and his nominating committee for all their work in finding talented and willing candidates for these positions.

This year a number of our members who had never before attended the annual dinner came, and they told me that their experience exceeded their expectations. Although the geniality of our members was no surprise to these "first-timers", they were impressed by the excellence of the honorees. Anyone who feels pessimistic about the future of our country need only hear the Scholarship and Teaching Excellence awardees speak to have faith in the future restored.

Although the annual dinner ended one busy year, another is about to begin. As spring turns into summer, and then into fall and winter, we hope we can count on your continued support of the Association and its many activities.

Jean Ellen James, President

Chapter Liaison Report

ΦBKNCA volunteers will attend April through June initiation ceremonies at all eight of our affiliated college chapters in Northern California: UC Berkeley, UC Davis, UC Santa Cruz, University of the Pacific, Mills College, San Francisco State University, Santa Clara University, and Stanford University.

Thanks to our 2009 volunteers: Marci Coglianesi, Jean James, Narcinda Lerner, Masako Miura, Janiece Nolan, Letitia Sanders, Joanne Sandstrom, and Margaret Williams.

ΦBKNCA participates in these ceremonies to increase awareness of our nation-wide PBK alumnae associations and to obtain nominations for our teaching excellence awards, as well as applications for our scholarships. Participation gives our volunteers a chance to meet the faculty and students at a campus and just plain have fun remembering our college days.

Please contact me if you are interested in participating in an initiation in 2010.

Janiece S. Nolan, Ph.D., Jn1137@aol.com

We'd like to have your email address

Don't worry, we won't send you weekly - or even monthly - newsletters, but occasionally we have an announcement: for example, we can notify you when the events, now in the planning stage (see page four), have been finalized. Email is also the way we can correct critical errors in our newsletter, such as the date for the Blackhawk Auto Museum tour in the November issue.

Please send us an email from your email account to contact@pbknca.org, and include your name as it appears on the mailing label as the subject of the email.

You can be confident that we will not share our list with anyone, I promise; and you can opt out easily at any time.

Ray Hendess, Editor and Webmaster

Asilomar 2009

The tax-deductible amount of your Asilomar payment for your 2008 taxes is $61.34. Use Novato CA as the ΦBKNCA location.

Ninety-seven Phi Betes and their guests attended our 23rd annual conference at Asilomar in Pacific Grove over President's Day Weekend, February 13-16. Stimulating lectures and discussions alternated with relaxing time to renew old friendships and make new acquaintances.

Our speakers presented various views on "Changes in American Life: Past, Present, and Future." Friday night Mr. Peter Hannaford spoke on "Presidential Leadership and the Nature of Change," followed by a lively discussion led by some of our physicist members who commented on Reagan's Strategic Defense Initiative. Saturday Dr. LeAnn Flesher spoke on the influence of premillennial dispensationalism and the Left Behind fiction series that cobbles together biblical references out of context and interprets apocalyptic literature as prophecy. Saturday night Dr. Ellen Hanak excited the group when she addressed the future of water in California and rehearsed the pros and cons of a peripheral canal. On Sunday we heard about ergonomics helping workers and saving Intel thousands of dollars in workmanship compensation insurance costs from Mr. Earnest Ray. In the afternoon Miss Julia Morgan (aka Betty Marvin) made an appearance across space and time to tell us about her life and how she became California's first woman architect. Jonathan O'Bergin, owner of Gryphon winery in Carmel Valley, joined us for a delightful wine seminar and tasting of his Chardonnay, Syrah, Cabernet Franc, and Pinot Noir. That night Ms. Sharon Burke arrived from Washington to tell us about President Obama's proposals for changes in the nation's approach to national security. On Monday morning Dr. Sara Gilliland explained how new discoveries in neuroanatomy are helping physical therapists improve the quality of life of their clients.

Now is the time to reserve your space for next year, the 24th Annual ΦBKNCA Conference at beautiful Asilomar, February 12-15. Just send your $100 registration fee to Calvin Wood, new Asilomar Chair, at 420 Lincoln Avenue, Livermore, CA 94550. When he receives your check payable to PBKNCA, he will send you the Asilomar housing form. The sooner you return the form to Asilomar, the more likely you will be able to obtain the room of your choice.

Remember the registration fee largely goes to support our graduate student scholarships. The more persons who attend the conference, the more awards we can give to deserving students in northern California.

Hope to see you in 2010,
Jae Emenhiser.

Lance Iversen / The Chronicle

Lewis Carroll: "We called him Tortoise because he taught us...Achilles had overtaken the Tortoise, and had seated himself comfortably on its back... 'You flatter me - flatten, I mean, said the Tortoise; for you are a heavy weight, and no mistake! Well now, would you like to hear of a race-course, that most people fancy they can get to the end of in two or three steps, while it really consists of an infinite number of distances, each one longer than the previous one?'"

The largest tortoise refuge in northern California is in our own backyard, where Ginger & Gary Wilfong care for hundreds of injured, threatened, and unwanted tortoises and turtles at their home in Castro Valley. We will visit the refuge and learn how this dedicated couple found their mission in life, rehabilitating and releasing back into the wild when they can, and how they care for the tortoises and turtles when release is not possible.

The Bay Area Turtle and Tortoise Rescue doesn't have a website, but some articles have been written. For links to some great pictures and more information, see the ΦBKNCAs online newsletter at www.newsletter.pbknca.org

Historic Tour of the Presidio of San Francisco-Tuesday, July 14, 2009. Deadline: July 1, 2009

Artist's conception of Spanish Presidio of San Francisco

Did you Know? In the three days following the 1906 earthquake, the Army's refugee camps at the Presidio issued 3,000 tents, 12,000 shelter halves, 13,000 ponchos, 58,000 pairs of shoes, and 24,000 regulation blue shirts.

Did You Know? In 1915, a tragic fire at the Presidio claimed the lives of General Pershing's wife and his three daughters. Pershing's son, Francis Warren, survived the blaze and chose to enlist in the army as a private during World War II. By the end of the war he had achieved the rank of major.

Did You Know? The Presidio has a rich cultural history spanning back to the time of the native Ohlone people. The Spanish arrived in 1776 to establish the northernmost outpost of their empire in western North America. The Presidio then fell under Mexican rule for 24 years before the U.S. Army took control of it in 1846. Over 148 years, the U.S. Army transformed the Presidio grounds from mostly empty windswept dunes and scrub to a verdant, preeminent military post. Since 1994, the Presidio has been a part of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area.

Our tour of portions of the Presidio by one of City Guides' docents will cover the extensive history of the Presidio while we explore its historic places.

Tour of Eugene O'Neill National Historic Site, including Tao House- Saturday, September 19, 2009. Deadline: September 1, 2009

Tao House

"I will always be a stranger who never feels at home...who must always be a little in love with death." The Long Day's Journey of Eugene O'Neill began in New York City where he was born in 1888. It encompassed infancy in hotel rooms and theater wings, Catholic boarding schools, Princeton University, Honduras, South America, flop houses, a TB sanitarium and so much more.

One of America's most prominent playwrights, Eugene O'Neill won four Pulitzer Prizes and the Nobel Prize for Literature for his playwriting. He is often thought of as the father of modern American drama for the new, uniquely American style of tragedy he created. Eugene wrote what he considered, and what many critics consider, his best work while living at Tao House.

During our tour, we will no doubt learn some tidbits about O'Neill's family and background, such as the fact that his father was the famous late 19th Century actor James O'Neill who is best known for playing the Count of Monte Cristo over 6,000 times. Or, that Greta Garbo made her talking picture debut in the 1930 MGM version of O'Neill's Pulitzer Prize winning play "Anna Christie."

Accessibility: Transportation is accessible to wheelchair users with advanced notice. The first floor of Tao House is accessible. A media presentation of the second floor guided tour is available.

 Norall Family Scholarship

We are pleased to acknowledge a most generous gift by Burt Norall and former Board member, Maria Norall, in memory of Cordie and Max McLain. The McLains were wealthy rice farmers from Burt's home town in Butte County who enabled him to attend UC Berkeley by providing him with funds for his expenses. Burt chose to fully fund one of the Northern California Association's scholarships this year in their names because he has seen how dedicated Maria and other Board members are, and he knew the full amount would actually go to a deserving student.

* Elizabeth B. Reed Scholarship

The Elizabeth Buttler Read Scholarship, established in 1992 by the Association following a bequest from her estate, honors a remarkable woman who exemplifies the breadth of professions and skills one determined woman can master with enough grit and innate talent. Visit our website at www.pbknca.org for more information about this outstanding woman.
