From The President

Thank you for electing me as your new President. I am both honored and challenged to try to follow in the footsteps of Jean James, who has done such an outstanding job over the past four years. My priorities will be to support liberal arts education and scholarship through our graduate scholarships, teaching excellence awards, and our liaison with our eight universities, and to maintain enjoyable programs for our members who make it all possible.

Many thanks go to outgoing officers Mary Granger (Recording Secretary) and Joanne Williams (Corresponding Secretary), for their service on the board. We are happy to welcome Letitia Sanders who returns to the board, this time as Corresponding Secretary, and Marci Coglianese who joins the board, replacing me as Chapter Liaison Chair. Those who will continue on the board in their positions are Judith Hardardt (Programs), Joanne Sandstrom (Scholarship), Alex Harding (Membership), and Mary Gilliland (Treasurer), and Ray Hendess (Newsletter and Webmaster). As we go to press, we are still seeking a Recording Secretary. I will rely on our leadership team to deliver to you the Phi Beta Kappa experience you expect and deserve.

Many thanks to Peete Baer, who chaired the Nominating Committee, consisting of Marvin Richards, Jacqueline Celenza, Larry Lerner, Gerald Richards, and Cal Wood.

Our Annual Awards Dinner was held Sunday, May 2, at the Faculty Club at UC Berkeley, once again under the sponsorship of our NCA member, Mel Shattuck. Judy Hardardt, First Vice President, Programs, was in charge of all the arrangements and continued the outstanding performance she has displayed in organizing our many activities this year. The hard work and dedication of our Board and committee members ensured the success of the evening. After we elected officers, we awarded $5,000 scholarships to each of eight deserving graduate students. Four outstanding professors received Teaching Excellence awards with $500 honoraria. The names of those honored are listed on page 2 of this newsletter and on our website at www.pbknca.org. Each of the awardees spoke briefly at the dinner and all impressed us with their keen perspectives and depths of knowledge.

Our awards are made possible by the generosity of our members through your dues, donations, and Asilomar Conference registration fees. One of our graduate scholarships is provided annually by a bequest from the estate of Elizabeth B. Reed. From time to time some of our members fully fund and name a scholarship in someone's honor. This year a generous member, who wishes to remain anonymous, provided one of our $5,000 scholarships. Please think about what you might be able to do.

All of us can attend the delightful programs that Judy Hardardt has planned for us in the coming months. Please see page 3 to discover what they are. These events support our awards. Do you have a friend who is Phi Beta Kappa? Invite him/her to join you at one of our programs and swell our membership ranks!

Teaching Excellence Awards

The Teaching Excellence Committee had an additional email meeting. We decided to recommend ΦBK NCA award four teaching excellence awards at the 2010 awards dinner to the following people:

Judith L. Bishop, Department of Women's Studies and Religion, Mills College

Kristin Lagatutta, Psychology Department, University of California, Davis

Richard Muller, Department of Physics, University of California, Berkeley

Patrick Y. Chuang, Department of Earth and Planetary Sciences, University of California, Santa Cruz

The committee has received six nominations for the 2011 awards. Five are from UC Berkeley and one is from Mills. (All nominators reported they were initiated into ΦBK this year.)

Narcinda Lerner, Teaching Excellence Chair

Scholarship Awards

Shah Ali, Stanford, Medicine

Chantal Frankenbach, UC Davis, Music

Harold (Hal) Haggard, UC Berkeley, Physics

William Love Anderegg, Stanford, Biology

Alexis Peri, UC Berkeley, History

Margaret Peters, Stanford, Political Science

Lilliana Radoshevich*, UCSF, Biomedical Sci.

Johnny Tam†, UCSF (& UCB), Bioengineering

* Reed Scholarship

† Application through UCSF, not UCB

Joanne Sandstrom, Second Vice President, Scholarship

Chapter Liaison Report

I have enjoyed being your Chapter Liaison for the past four years. My job has been to keep in touch with the ΦBK offices at our eight affiliated university chapters and to arrange our participation in their initiation ceremonies. Many of you have represented us and the feedback has been wonderful. Our participation at the initiations enhances awareness of our nationwide ΦBK alumni associations and increases nominations for our teaching excellence awards, as well as applications for our graduate scholarships. Participation gives our volunteers a chance to meet the faculty and students at a campus and just plain have fun remembering our college days!

Mills College Initiation Attended by Toni Thomas

Pictured are: Prof. Fred Lawson (Political Science) and initiates: Megan Rose Black, Alyssa Michelle House-Thomas, Shannon Luva Thompson, Stephanie Maria Zarifis, and Diva Gabrielle Zumaya.

I am pleased to report that Marci Coglianese was appointed by the Board to replace me as Chapter Liaison, as I take over the role of President. I know that Marci would love to hear from any of you who are interested in participating in these initiations in 2011! Her email is marci.coglianese@comcast.net.

Thanks to the following NCA representatives:

Toni Thomas – Mills College – April 7

Margaret Williams – San Francisco State University – May 6

Joanne Sandstrom – UC Berkeley – May 12

Marci Coglianese – U of the Pacific – May 14

Judy Hardardt – UC Davis – May 17

Jean James – Santa Clara University – June 11

Sierra Elliot Thompson – Stanford University – June 11

William Zahner & Masako Miura – UC Santa Cruz – June 11

Receive the Newsletter Online

Sign up now to go green - receive the newsletter weeks ahead of everyone else and save the Association money. When we take the newsletter to the printer, we will send you an email notification containing a link to the newsletter online. You will be able read it online, save it on your computer, and/or print it out. Try it; it's quick and easy, even for those of us who are "technologically challenged." If you later want to switch back to snail mail delivery of the hard copy – no problem. There will be a link in the email to do that. Go to www.pbknca.org/1010

Upcoming Events

Here is a reminder about our enrollment, refund and cancellation policies. Most events can accommodate you and any friends or family you'd like to bring along. Occasionally an event will have a limited enrollment, in which case we may not be able to accommodate more than one member and one guest per enrollment. As for refunds, if you call in advance they may be available unless Φ BKNCA will lose scholarship money — that is, unless we are financially committed, based on your enrollment, to an organization at which the event will be held. If we can find someone to fill your space, we may be able to refund your payment, but that is not always possible. Members who do not come to an event for which they have registered will not receive a refund. The Φ BKNCA Board is most grateful to those who prefer to donate the program fee to the scholarship program in lieu of a refund.

Directions are available from the event websites, Google.com, your GPS, or by calling Judy at (530) 297-7150.

Tour of the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco – Thursday, June 3, 2010

One of the world's foremost collections of historic United States currency can be found at the San Francisco Fed. Our 90-minute-long private tour of the Fed will include the Currency Processing operation areas, the cash vault, the interactive lobby exhibit and the historical currency collection. Be prepared for a unique experience! No souvenirs or samples will be available, however.

NOTE: We are required to provide the Fed with the names of everyone in our group two weeks prior to our visit. Please bring a form of identification (passport, driver's license, or state-issued identification card) with you. The name on your

ID must match the name on the list we will be providing them prior to our visit.

Date: Thursday, June 3, 2010

Deadline: May 18, 2010

Time: 1:30 pm (please be prompt)

Minimum: 10. Maximum: 30

Price: $9.00

Location: The Fed is located at 101 Market Street at the corner of Spear in San Francisco. For those opting to take the ferry, the Fed is about a two-block walk up Market from the Ferry Building. The closest BART exit is Embarcadero which is a short walk from 101 Market. For those opting to drive, there is a public parking structure on Spear St.

We will meet in the Fed Center, located in the west corner of the Bank's lobby.

Walt Disney Family Museum – Wednesday, August 18, 2010

When you wish upon a star...the Walt Disney Family Museum, recently opened on the grounds of the Presidio, will allow us a peek into the life of this fascinating and creative man, his achievements, his stories, and his entrepreneurship. The 10 interactive galleries in the museum, its theater, the models of Disneyland and more, illuminate Disney's successes, disappointments, and never-ending optimism. The creator of Mickey Mouse, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Disneyland, and the global yet distinctly American company that bears his name, Disney was a risk-taker who started his first business at the age of 19 and worked tirelessly to elevate animation to an art form.

We will meet 20 minutes before we are scheduled to enter the museum, and at the end of our visit, if you so desire, the Museum Café, operated by Wolfgang Puck, will be open for lunch.

Date: Wednesday, August 18, 2010

Time: 11:00 am (please be at the museum by 10:40 am)

Minimum: 10. Maximum: 30

Deadline: July 30, 2010

Fee: $20.00

Location: 104 Montgomery Street, The Presidio of San Francisco (not the downtown Montgomery St.!)

Rosie the Riveter & WWII Home Front National Historical Park – Thursday, September 16, 2010

One of America's newest historical parks, Rosie the Riveter & WWII Home Front National Historical Park is right in our own backyard. While we all know the stories about Rosie, our visit to and ranger-led tour of the park will give us the "nuts and bolts" (pun intended) behind the myths and legends of this fascinating effort which took place during World War II.

The Rosie the Riveter Memorial in Richmond's Marina Bay Park is fully accessible and open year round, dawn to dusk, as are the other Richmond city parks within the National Park's boundaries. The SS Red Oak Victory Ship was built in the Kaiser Shipyards and is located in Historic Shipyard #3 in the Port of Richmond. For those of us who collect them, a National Park PASSPORT STAMP STATION is on the Ship. Be aware that the ship has a steep gangplank, and is not fully accessible.

Date: Thursday, September 16, 2010

Time: tour starts at 1:30pm; be at location no later than 1:10pm

Minimum: 12. Maximum: 15

Deadline: September 1, 2010

Fee: $10

Location: I 580 to Canal Blvd exit; continue to 1337 Canal Blvd., Berth 6A or via GPS: Latitude: 37.9365204354, Longitude: -122.365344883

See <http://www.ssredoakvictory.com/contact.htm>

Chocolate Fest! Saturday – October 9, 2010

Chocoholics beware! This event is being held on Saturday so that those of us still gainfully employed can participate. The Chocolate Tour we did last year in San Francisco was great and we're hoping to top that this year when we visit the Belmont Congregational Church where we will be able to sample the wares of some 20 different vendors of chocolate, including their ice cream, gelato, brownies, cakes, cookies, truffles & candy of every sort as well as chunks of pure chocolate. And, in addition to all the chocolate, we'll enjoy free champagne and coffee, plus the atmosphere provided by the Michael Medwid Jazz Trio. There are also a chocolate boutique and prizes. This is a charitable event benefitting community programs such as Samaritan House, Second Harvest Food Bank, Interfaith Hospitality Network.

Website: <http://www.uccbelmont.org/events.html>

Date: Saturday, October 9, 2010

Time: 1:00 to 4:00pm

Minimum: 10. Maximum: none

Deadline: September 10, 2010

Fee: $20

Location: The Belmont Congregational Church, 751 Alameda de las Pulgas, Belmont, CA.
